THE BIG DRIVE OF DEMOCRATS

STATE CAMPAIGN COMMITTEE
PUTS IN FINAL LICKS.—GOS-
SIP FROM LOUISVILLE.

Louisville, Ky., Oct. 18.—(Special.)—For nearly a year observers of the European war have been waiting for the promised "big drive" that would win for one side or the other and bring the great struggle to an end. That drive has not come. But there is a drive just started in Kentucky, which, if copied and carried out by either of the contending forces in Europe, will end in victory. That is the drive that the Democratic campaign managers in Louisville have started to shove across the goal line on November 2. Augustus Owsley Stanley and the rest of the Democratic ticket. In the language of the boys who use slang, it is "some drive" and, before it is over, the Democratic path will be fairly strewn with Republican corpses.

The Democratic plan of campaign includes hurling at the enemy continuously until the eve of election all the heavy oratorical artillery it possesses. The big Krupp 45 centimeter guns now in action are A. O. Stanley himself, rated as one of the greatest vote getters on the stump Kentucky has ever known, Hon. Henry C. McChesney, who is "going down the line" for the ticket, Senator Ollie M. James, Senator J. C. W. Beckham, Governor McCreary all the candidates on the state ticket and many others. They will keep up an incessant bombardment on the fortifications of the enemy.

At the same time the field artillery, the shrapnel guns and the rifles are also at work. Major General Hager, through his field officers, the county campaign chairman, is marshalling his cavalry and infantry. They are all in camp, every man counted and prepared. On November 2, they will rush on the polls in one gigantic charge, covering the whole state and on the morning of November 3, they will count the dead and wounded Republicans and go back to their homes to rest for another year.

General Hager has sent word down the line that every Kentucky Democrat must do his duty. Every man must be at his post on election day. No excuses for staying at home will be accepted. The crops are all in. The shooting season does not begin until Nov. 15. If it rains—well, it rains alike on the just and the unjust. A wet skin never hurts a healthy man. This is the feeling of the campaign managers. They want General Overconfidence and General Apathy, the two commanders the Republicans are counting on most, to be ground into the earth by the individual Democratic soldiers.

If a voter thinks it is hard to get to the polls he might take the example of Stanley Morrow had a date to speak at Hindman, Knott-co. Morrow got to Prestonsburg, Floyd-co., and found he would have to ride sixteen miles across the mountains on a mule to get to Hindman. He cancelled his speaking dates. Stanley arrived in Prestonsburg two weeks later and found the same situation confronting him. "Bring on your mule," said "A. O." The mule was brought forward. "Old emblem of Democracy, old tried and true friend of the farmer, if you'll carry me across these mountain roads, I'll ride you," said Stanley to the mule. "Ed Morrow broke his thumb trying to drive an automobile over these mountain roads. I'll break more than a thumb before I'll break my promise to the people of Hindman or the people of anywhere else. When I am elected governor I'll help build up these roads. Let's go." They went. The campaign managers figure that if Stanley can ride mule across mountains to keep speaking dates, the voters can hump their backs and get to the polls on election day.

Hon. H. V. McChesney at Shelbyville last week told a big crowd that the majority rules in the Democratic party, that the majority had spoken clearly in the primary, that as a Democrat he was supporting the entire ticket. He urged his friends who supported him in the primary to do the same thing. That the McChesney men will follow the man they worked so hard for in the primary is now a certainty and rumors of defection on their part have been completely exploded.

Around the Democratic headquarters in the Galt House appear all the signs of a real campaign. Prominent Democrats from all over the state are dropping in every day and with their help Judge Hager is checking up on conditions in every county. There is an air of confidence about all the leaders. They feel that the election of the entire ticket is a foregone conclusion if the Democratic vote comes out. They know that the full Republican vote will be cast, as the Republicans are working hard everywhere. Most of the county campaign chairmen are sending in good reports of conditions of their respective localities.

Arrangements for the special train which will carry distinguished speakers to both the western and eastern sections of the state during the last week of the campaign are now under way. Prominent Democrats from outside Kentucky who will be on the train are Senator James Hamilton Lewis of Illinois; former Governor Cox of Ohio; Congressman J. Thomas Helton of Indiana and Congressman Dixon of Indiana. They are all great speakers and Democrats who live in the cities and towns along the route of the special train have a rare treat in store for them.

ARRESTED IN OHIO IN MOREHEAD KILLING.

Urbana, O., Oct. 16.—Jerry Dye, said to be wanted at Morehead, Rowan-co., Kentucky, for the killing of Wiley Howell, an election judge, was arrested at Northville, near here, yesterday and is being held in the Urbana prison for the Kentucky authorities. In his cell, according to the police, Dye admitted that he had struck Howell three times with a pick handle, but he said he did so in self defense.

The police say Dye told them of how Howell had ordered the polls closed before he and several other voters had an opportunity to cast their ballots for his brother-in-law, the Rev. Arthur Howard, a candidate for the School Board.

Dye said the matter was brought up the day after election while he was at work on a road. Howell was a road superintendent. After the fight, Dye told the police here, he left his home and came North. Later his wife sent him word that Howell was not dead. Howell, however, died about a week ago. According to information furnished the local police a reward of $500 had been offered.

C. AND O. REPORTS NO DEATH FOR 1914.

The annual report to stockholders for the fiscal year ended June 30, 1915, which has just been issued by the Chesapeake & Ohio railroad company, reveals some interesting facts. The total operating revenue were $22,464,037, as compared with $17,459,864 for the preceding year. The operating expenses were $27,556,413, as against $26,413,829 for 1914. The number of tons of freight carried amounted to 39,084,454, an increase of 2,326,439 for 1914. The number of passengers carried was 6,487,803, a decrease of 3,453. The number of passengers carried one mile amounted to the enormous total of 25,380,000, not one of whom was killed in a train accident. Very large sums were spent in maintaining the property, the expenditures for maintenance of way and structures amounting to $4,649,222, and for maintenance of equipment $8,243,170, both items representing large increases over 1914. The average rate per ton per mile on freight decreased 6 per cent, as compared with 1914, being now 3.54 mills. The average rate per passenger per mile was 2.15 cents. A very considerable gain in operating efficiency is shown. The average revenue train load was increased thirty-six tons, being now 908 tons, which establishes a record for roads of the Chesapeake & Ohio's mileage, length of average haul and operating conditions.

HIGH GRADE COAL UNDERLYING THIS LOCALITY

THE DRILL SHOWS VALUABLE
COAL DEPOSITS UNDER FT.
GAY AND LOUISA.

Fort Gay, W. Va., Oct. 16, 1915.
Big Sandy News, Louisville, Ky.

Gentlemen:—Thinking it might be of interest to your readers I am offering below the analysis of coal underlying this part of the country and perhaps extending for a great distance.

In the drilling for oil on the Lyons, Loan and other farms about two miles from Fort Gay on Big Sandy river and at a depth of two hundred feet a vein of coal is found from six to seven feet in thickness where this coal as analyzed came from. Besides this vein there are others at a less depth but not as thick.

Moisture.....	4.30 per cent.
Volatile matter.....	39.00 "
Fixed carbon.....	49.80 "
Ash.....	6.90 "
B. T. U.....	13,572 (dry basis)

This is a high grade gas coal and ranks very well as a steam coal, proposition.

Respectfully,
A. V. OSBORN.

SUICIDED IN WILLIAMSON.

Davie Maynard, a young girl about 15 years of age, committed suicide yesterday in the west end of this city. She shot herself through the heart with an U. S. army revolver and died instantly. She was standing before a mirror when she committed the act and never spoke and when her mother reached her she was dead. She left a note but there was nothing in it to denote the cause of the deliberate suicide.

The coroner's verdict was: "Came to her death by a pistol shot fired by her own hand."—Williamson News.

HENRY L. PRICHARD DIED IN HOSPITAL.

Henry Lewis Prichard, son of Dr. L. Prichard of Charleston, died at the Sheppard and Enoch Pratt hospital in Baltimore Saturday. He had been in ill health for some time and had gone to the hospital for treatment. Mr. Prichard was born at Grayson, Carter county, Ky., December 25, 1859. He attended school at the University of Notre Dame from September, 1886 to June, 1890, when he graduated with the degree of Bachelor of Science.—Ashland Independent.

A LUCKY JEWEL.

Opals as gems are said to be unlucky, but a Garnet drew the beautiful library rocker offered by Jake the Hebrew. Miss Garnet Bartram, with five tickets in Jake's big sale last Saturday held the winning number.

DEATH OF DR. C. F. REID.

Dr. C. F. Reid died at Erlanger, Ky., October 7th.

The above announcement fills us with surprise and sadness. We have had no particulars of the good man's going away, but supposed that he was on the road to health and renewed labor. Dr. Reid had done a man's work in home and foreign fields. He was all at home with his Lord's spirit. He did not rust out, he burned out. And not in vain. He set many a heart afire for God and souls. In all sorts of work he was approved and not ashamed. In the pastorate, on the platform before great masses of missionary workers, in the pulpit on conference anniversaries, in the councils of church leaders, before our cabinets and boards, as Secretary of the Laymen's Missionary Movement—indeed everywhere he was honored and masterful. It is hard to give up such leaders as Drs. Alexander and Reid. Dr. Reid had been in feeble health since early in this year, and in May, at the annual meeting of the Board of Missions, he was granted an indefinite leave of absence and went to Erlanger, Ky. He returned to Nashville several weeks ago and entered actively upon his work, but he soon realized that his strength was not equal to the task, and only a few days previous to his death went back to the home of his sister, in Erlanger, Ky.—Central Methodist Advertiser.

TO ORGANIZE BIG TRUST CO.

Ben Hogan, for whom requisition was recently denied by the governor of Oklahoma, is organizing a big trust company in Oklahoma City, according to Deputy Sheriff Tom Gallagher, who went to Oklahoma City after Mr. Head, who was indicted by a Lloyd-co. grand jury on a charge of having obtained money under false pretense, by selling "Citizens Bank stock" to M. W. Thomas, alias its real value.

When Mr. Gallagher arrived in Oklahoma City, the governor was away and the lieutenant governor refused to act in the case. When the governor returned, Mr. Head's attorneys informed him that at the time the offense was alleged to have been committed, Mr. Head was in Oklahoma City. The governor asked Mr. Gallagher if he could prove to the contrary. The deputy sheriff told the governor that he did not come to Oklahoma City prepared to try the case there, but to present his requisition papers, which had been issued by the governor of Kentucky, and that the date on the indictment should be sufficient so far as all requisition purposes were concerned.

The governor, however, declared otherwise, and declined to honor the request of Governor McCreary that Mr. Head be given into the custody of the official representative of the county of Floyd.

Mr. Head has been joined in Oklahoma City by his wife and son—Ashland Independent.

POINTS MADE BY SENATOR JAMES.

In the speeches he is making for Owsley Stanley and the rest of the Democratic ticket Senator Ollie James points out that there are two types of bolters, one whom he terms the "courageous bolter," who "goes the whole hog" and votes the Republican ticket, and the other the "cowardly bolter," who stays at home on election day and does his party infinitely more harm than the one who boldly goes over to the Republican camp. Senator James further emphasizes the fact that there never was in all the history of Kentucky a Democrat more fairly nominated and more entitled to the support of every Democrat than Owsley Stanley.

DYNAMITE CAR WRECKED; DEPOT EMPLOYEES SPRINT.

Winchester, Ky., Oct. 14.—Employees of the Union Station here fled for their lives this afternoon when a C. & O. train crashed into an L. & N. freight car loaded with thirty-five cases of dynamite, and with as many boxes of powder. The wreck occurred near the ticket office, and it looked much as if the derailed dynamite car was going to be jammed into the station. The men in the ticket office didn't wait to see whether the station was hit or not. They were far away before that could have happened. The impact of the collision was heard blocks from the station, but there was no explosion.

DR. BANFIELD BETTER.

Dr. A. P. Banfield, who was removed to the Huntington hospital on No. 2 Saturday afternoon is reported to-day as being very much better.

Dr. Banfield is suffering from a badly infected limb as a result of fever several years ago, and since which has caused him much trouble. For a time the amputation of this member was feared necessary, but under the skilled medical attention of his attending physicians, the thought is about abandoned. Dr. Banfield is widely known throughout this section and his legion of interested friends will rejoice to learn of his improvement.—Independent.

CONGRESSMAN FIELDS SPOKE AT WEBBVILLE.

Judge Redwine and John M. Waugh could not all their engagement to speak at Webbville last Saturday night without neglecting their duties in the Circuit Court at Grayson. The Frazier murder trial was on hands, Congressman Fields went to Webbville by request and the crowd that gathered was not disappointed.

SENATOR JAMES' GREAT SPEECH

ADDRESSED VOTERS OF LAW-RENCE COUNTY AT LOUISA
ON TUESDAY.

What was probably the best political speech ever heard in Lawrence county was delivered in the Court House last Tuesday afternoon. The speaker was the senior Senator from Kentucky, Ollie James. Senator James has a reputation as an orator and statesman which is national, and on this notable occasion he was at his best, notwithstanding the fact that for many days and nights he has been spreading the cause of Democracy and advocating the claims of the Democratic State ticket over nearly the whole Commonwealth of Kentucky. He dealt not only with State issues but with national questions as well, defending and endorsing Governor McCreary and lauding the administration of President Wilson in the most glowing and eloquent terms. Senator James is justly proud of the fact that he has frequently had private audience with the President regarding the political business of the country.

It was to the condition of affairs in this State that Senator James addressed himself, and he did it so effectively and convincingly that, if he spoke elsewhere as he did here, that he must have won hundreds of votes for the ticket he is so ably championing. In argument the Senator was unanswerable, in his showing by fact and figures he was irrefutable, in sarcasm he was scathing, in logic he was faultless, and in genuine eloquence he was surpassing. It is easy to see how a speech like this could cause men to say, as many did, "That was the best speech I ever heard." But the fact is, no hastily written notice of the Senator's splendid effort can do it justice, and we refrain. To appreciate it the speech must have been heard.

Senator James had a fine audience, in size and quality. The weather was inclement and the notice of the meeting very short, but Louisians turned out in large numbers and voters from every part of the county were present. Many ladies were present and the public school was dismissed for a couple of hours in order that the pupils might listen to a Kentucky orator.

That old wheel-horse of the Democratic band wagon, J. Q. Lackey, presided over the meeting, and C. B. Bromley introduced the distinguished speaker.

CAPT. STONE NAMED TO HEAD CONFEDERATES IN KENTUCKY.

Capt. William J. Stone, State Pension Commissioner, was elected commander of the Kentucky division of the United Confederate Veterans at their annual reunion at the Confederate Home at Pewee Valley.

Brigade commanders were chosen as follows: First, James Rogers, Bourbon county; third, Col. Thomas D. Osborne, Louisville; fourth, Geo. W. Taylor, Nicholasville. The absence of a second brigade commander was caused by the elevation of Col. Stone to the command.

Following the meeting a dinner was served by the members of the Confederate Home Chapter, Daughters of the Confederacy.

PROBABLY FATAL ACCIDENT.

Probably Wellman, age about 40 years, fell from a work car of the electric street line in Huntington on Wednesday and received injuries from which it is said he can not possibly recover.

He was an employee of the car company and was at work when the accident occurred. He fell on his head and fractured his skull. Wellman is a son of James Harvey Wellman, of this place, and has a wife and several children.

THIRD ROW SENATE SEAT ASSIGNED TO BECKHAM.

Washington, Oct. 16.—Seat No. 73, in the United States Senate chamber, was assigned yesterday to Senator Beckham by the sergeant-at-arms. It is the end seat nearest the Senate lobby in the third row from the Vice President's desk on the Democratic side, and was occupied during the last Congress by Senator White, of Alabama. Senator James will continue to occupy seat No. 89, in the rear row of the chamber. Senator Underwood has been assigned to seat No. 95, occupied by Senator Camden during his service in the Senate.

CONSULTS A SPECIALIST.

Mr. and Mrs. George Gunnell, Sr., and Miss Amanda Yates left yesterday on C. & O. train No. 3 for Cincinnati to consult a specialist in regard to the health of Mr. Gunnell.

For some time past the health of Mr. Gunnell has been on a gradual decline, thus causing his family deep concern, so they placed him in the care of the best physicians that can be secured with the hope of a speedy recovery.—Independent.

TIMBER SUIT SETTLED.

The Kentucky Coal Lands Company of New York won its suit in the Federal Court to-night against the General Development Company of Pennsylvania over an eight-mile boundary line of an immense timber and mineral tract in Letcher-co., near the Perry line. The suit involves many thousands of dollars worth of land, and has been on trial nearly two weeks.

FINE DONATION PARTY.

On Monday last the Rev. Olus Hamilton, pastor of the Baptist church, and Mrs. Hamilton had the surprise of their lives. The aforesaid members appeared at the parsonage early in the evening, each one bringing something good to eat. They came and brought and deposited until the place resembled a good sized wholesale grocery. Their donations were not measured by pounds but by backs and bushels, and they consisted of almost every conceivable thing comforting to the inner men and women. The high cost of living will not worry the recipients of so much food for many a day. It was most excellent in quality and abundance in quantity, and the worthy minister and his helpmate are appreciative and very grateful to every one who had a part in the liberal donations.

In this connection the publication of some facts and figures concerning Mr. Hamilton may be interesting. He is the youngest Baptist minister in point of years in the valley. He is also the youngest Baptist minister in point of years in the ministry in the valley. He is the oldest Baptist minister in point of location in the valley, starting in as 4th year. He is the oldest pastor in location of any denomination in Louisa. Has spoken in 19 different Baptist pulpits in Eastern Kentucky.

REFORMATORY.

Frankfort, Ky., Oct. 16.—Twelve thousand zillion cans of vegetables have been put up at the reformatory farms for the enjoyment of the prisoners this winter. The store includes corn, apples, tomatoes and beans. Warden Wells said the supply represents the equivalent of three months' provisions. An expert canner and found among the prisoners, Robert Sanders, who has had experience in canning plants and he was put in charge of the work. The reformatory in the next few months probably will reach a record breaking population, possibly 1,500. At present there are 1,440 occupants for the 1,152 cells. The highest the population has ever reached under Warden Wells has been 1,447.

DEATH OF MRS. MILLARD PETERS

Mrs. Millard Peters, aged 26, died at her home near Clifford at an early hour Thursday morning after an illness of two weeks of typhoid fever. She is survived by three children, the youngest a child of six months. Her husband is also living. Mrs. Peters was the youngest daughter of Albert Ratcliff, who died about two years ago. Burial will occur on Friday at the old Ratcliff graveyard.

LIFE SENTENCE GIVEN ROBT. FRAZIER AT GRAYSON

MERCHANT CONVICTED OF MUR-
DERING HIS NIECE IN CAR-TER COUNTY.

Robert Frazier was sentenced to the penitentiary for life at Grayson Monday for the murder of his sister's daughter, Stella Kenney, age 17, of Fleming-co. Frazier was a merchant and quite prosperous. His niece had been visiting at his home for two or three months and on the second of last May he started in a buggy to take her to Fleming-co. Her dead body was found next day by the roadside near Olive Hill. Frazier claimed they had been assaulted and robbed. Proof showed that the girl was in a delicate condition and that Frazier was responsible. A letter written to a cousin, Dr. Stambaugh, of Floyd-co., was very damaging to Frazier. This was the second trial, the jury having failed to agree in the first trial. Frazier was a native of Floyd-co. His father sold his coal lands there for a large sum a few years ago and moved to Fleming-co.

BUT THE PRESIDENT DID "SUITOR."

And now comes none other than F. J. Updike, of West Virginia and modestly deposes that he was the first sweetheart of the president's fiancée, Mrs. Galt, having bestowed upon her certain rosy cheeked apples during boyhood, and accompanied them by divers bashful smiles; and he further deposes that said Mrs. Galt, or, as the party of the second part was then known, Miss Bolling, looked none too favorably upon him. In other words, he was her first suitor, but didn't, so Mr. Wilson needn't be expected to work up much of a case of jealousy.

R. W. EMBREY DEAD.

The message reached here late Friday afternoon that Mr. R. W. Embrey had passed away that day at his home in Graham, Va. Mrs. Frank Tyree, a sister-in-law, was at the Embrey home at the time. Mr. Embrey had for many months been in failing health and his death was not unexpected by relatives and friends. He was widely known in this city, where he resided for many years and where he married his first wife, Miss Lattie Hutchinson, who preceded him in death several years ago. He leaves besides a widow, two daughters, Miss Embrey Derrick and Miss Katherine Embrey.—Sandy Valley Call.

NONAGENARIAN PASSES.

Maysville, Ky., Oct. 18.—Ezekiel Stone, ninety-one years old, said to be the oldest native-born resident of Lewis-co., died at his home in that county after a short illness of infirmities incident to old age. He was the father of Sheriff W. T. Stone, of Lewis-co., and leaves several relatives in this city.

SHOTS ARE FIRED ACROSS THE RIVER IN THE DARKNESS.

Brownsville, Tex., Oct. 18.—The first firing across the Rio Grande in more than three weeks occurred at 4 o'clock Sunday morning near the Mercedes pumping plant, thirty-five miles above here, when Mexicans fired from thirty-five to forty shots. The American soldiers returned the fire, but no one was hurt.

Capt. Hassan, of the Sixth Cavalry, in command there, reported to Fort Brown that a Mexican dance was in progress on the Mexican side where the shooting occurred, and that he did not believe the occurrence serious.

Col. A. P. Blockson, commander of the cavalry, reported the occurrence to J. J. Garza, Carranza consul here, and to J. H. Johnson, American consul at Matamoros, with requests that an investigation be made by Gen. Eugenio Lopez, commander at Matamoros.

Col. Blockson continues to spread his cavalry along the Rio Grande in the district affected by the raids. Constant vigilance is being maintained by military authorities.

MASONIC GRAND LODGE IN ANNUAL SESSION.

Louisville, Oct. 19.—The 115th session of the Grand Lodge of Kentucky Masons convened at 19 o'clock Tuesday morning with the usual impressive Masonic ceremonies. Grand Master George B. Winslow, of Carrollton, was in the chair, and Deputy Grand Master T. J. Adams, who, at the end of the session, will succeed as Grand Master, was at his right hand, according to the Masonic custom.

Mr. James N. Saunders, of Stanford, was in the Grand Senior Warden's post, while Earl W. Weathers, of Elkton, was in his place as Grand Junior Warden. Mr. Saunders will become Deputy Grand Master and Mr. Weathers Grand Senior Warden. As usual, there will be a spirited fight for the post of Grand Junior Warden, that office becoming Grand Master in three years without opposition.

There was an unusually large number of Past Grand Masters of the State seated on the stage, and over 1,000 delegates were in the convention hall.

MRS. MCCLURE GROWING WORSE.

Mrs. Jane McClure, whose serious illness was noted by the NEWS last week, is steadily growing worse and her death may occur almost any time. She has been brought from Paintsville, where she was when the NEWS article of last week was written, and is now at her old home at Gallup. The disease is what is known to physicians as senile gangrene. All that the best care and attention can do is being given her but her recovery is hopeless.

Misses Emma and Eulah Collins and Miss Leah Gault were guests of honor at an oyster supper at the Louisa Inn given by J. Isralsky last Friday evening. It was a pleasant occasion, and was appreciated by the young ladies who were the recipients of this attention. Their going away is regretted by those who know them and many wishes for their return are expressed.

Not until he had driven three miles on the Guyan river road, did Herbert Craig, discover Miss Annie Adkins, who was riding on the rear seat of his motorcycle, was missing, according to a report by Patrolman Harrold.

The girl was picked up of Main-st. Guyandotte, after she had fallen from the machine. Miss Adkins was severely injured about the arms and legs. Friends of Craig followed him in motorcycles and told the boy Miss Adkins had been killed. He was overcome and had to be brought back to the city.—Huntington Herald.
